PRESIDENT: Senator Kremer.

I have a question on the short sheet to be sure I understand. Considering the five items in the middle of the sheet, if all of those would be successful, we would have a remaining balance that we could spend of $2.50 million?

SENATOR WARNER: That would be the amount that was left for all the items pending on General File.

SENATOR KREMER: Yes, then going on, if all the bills on Final Reading and on Select File were passed with the expenditure of funds as indicated on those bills, it would amount to $3.9 million?

SENATOR KREMER: Suppose all of those were successfully passed, then we would be short something over a million, $1,361,000, is this right?

SENATOR WARNER: In order to stay within existing tax rates and to maintain a 5% reserve, which, personally, I feel very strongly that that is desirable and necessary for cash flow purposes as well as the uncertainties of the (inaudible).

SENATOR KREMER: That was my question, and that would take into account the 5% reserve?

SENATOR WARNER: Yes. If you look on the long sheet, up toward the top, fourth item down is the amount of dollars for the reserve which has been maintained.

SENATOR KREMER: Okay, thank you, Senator Warner. Thank you very much.
